FrenchCreek Production Launches its Newest Line of Self-retracting Lifelines (SRL's) – the RENEGADE Series

– Enter the NEXT LEVEL in Fall Protection with the RENEGADE Series by FrenchCreek Production, Inc.

FRANKLIN, PA – August 1, 2013 – FrenchCreek Production Inc., a manufacturer of quality Fall Protection and Rescue/Recovery Equipment has officially unveiled its line of RENEGADE Series self-retracting lifelines.

The RENEGADE Series of SRL's showcase FrenchCreek toughness and reliability by providing the durability and confidence expected by professionals. Meeting and exceeding OSHA and ANSI standards, this American Made lifeline features 13 feet of working capacity, quick fall-arrest capability measured in inches, a corrosion resistant aluminum/stainless steel housing, a stainless steel swivel that is standard on all models, a variety of 5,000 pound connectors that allow for use in an array of applications, and a total working capacity of 400 pounds.

The RENEGADE Series is a strong compliment to FrenchCreek's traditional line of SRL's, offering lighter weight units starting at only 3.4 lbs. With an initial launch of twelve (12) different models, you don't have look any further than FrenchCreek for a superior quality "mini" retractable lifeline.

For more information regarding the entire line of RENEGADE Series products, please visit FrenchCreek Production's website at: www.frenchcreekproduction.com. Or download FCP's RENEGADE flyer at: <http://www.frenchcreekproduction.com/pdf/RENEGADE-SRL.pdf>
